

Activity Report 2018

14th January, 2018

Activating the cooperation agreement between Mansoura University and Ternopil State Medical University – Ukraine

On Sunday 14th January 2018, prof/ Mohamed Kenawy – president of Mansoura University received a delegation of Ternopil State Medical University – Ukraine.

The delegation included Prof/ Natalya Linshokshi - Director of International Relations and prof/ Logoyda Liliya Svyatoslavivna- vice Dean of Pharmaceutical faculty.

The visit comes within the framework of the activation of the cooperation agreement between Mansoura University and Ternopil State Medical University – Ukraine, which was signed in December 2016, and was followed by the signing of two agreements in pharmacy and nursing.

The agreement also includes the cooperation in both scientific and research fields and the exchange of faculty members and students to improve the scientific and research system and mutual benefit of the experiences between the two universities and the establishment of academic degrees in pharmacy and nursing.

On his side prof/ Kenawy stressed the importance of activating the terms of the agreement with a timetable for implementation.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

14th January, 2018

Mansoura University compete in the Formula Student competition organized annually at Silverstone prof/ Mohamed Kenawy - President of Mansoura University, held a meeting with Mansoura Motor sport team – faculty of Engineering to discuss the team's plan to compete in the Formula Student competition organized annually at Silverstone.

In the presence of Prof/ Ashraf Abdel Basset - Vice President for Education and Students' affairs, Prof/ Zaki Zaidan - Vice President for Community Service and Environmental affairs, Prof/ Mohamed Attwa - Dean of the Faculty of Commerce.

The students presented the stages of the new model for the manufacture of the new race car to be shared this year.

The team is currently in the finishing stage and this year the team is manufacturing all parts, adding electronic control parts and saws for all parts of the vehicle.

its worth to mention that the Formula Student Competition is organized annually at the Silverstone Circuit, the competition is divided into two phases, the first is to display the car, calculate its cost, design and specifications, and based on the evaluation of the car may be accepted and in the second phase which includes some safety tests and specifications Professional, race on the same ring under harsh conditions. In calculating the sum of points in both stages the team gets its position in the overall ranking.

on his side prof/ kenawy stressed the university's total support for the team, by facilitating all obstacles and addressing all concerned sides

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

26th February, 2018

A Cooperation Protocol Between Misr Elkheir Foundation and The Medical Sector at Mansoura University

Within the framework of medical services for health care provided by Mansoura University hospitals locally and internationally.

Mansoura University, represented by prof/ Saied Abd Elhady - Dean of the Faculty of medicine, signed a cooperation protocol with the Foundation of Misr El Kheir foundation.

In the presence of prof/ Mohamed Kenawy- President of Mansoura University, prof/ Ashraf Abd Albaset – vice president for education and students' affairs, prof/ Zaki Zidan – vice president for community service and environmental affairs And prof/ Nisreen Salah Omar -Vice Dean of the Faculty of Medicine for community service and environmental affairs.

The Cooperation Protocol aims at supporting patients who are unable to receive all the services at Mansoura University's hospitals and organizing medical convoys

A team from the Misr El Kheir Foundation in Dakahlia visited Mansoura University hospitals and learned about the provided health services and medical convoys have already begun to coordinate.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

6th March, 2018

Mansoura University launched the first specialized gymnasium

On Tuesday 6th March 2018, prof/ Mohamed Kenawy – president of Mansoura University, inaugurated the first specialized gymnasium in the Olympic Village at Mansoura University.

In the presence of prof/ Ashraf Abdel Basset -Vice President for Education and Students affairs, prof/ Zaki Zeidan -Vice President for Community Service and Environmental Development affairs, Mr./ Osama Moussa General Secretary of the University and prof/ Nabil Balat - Chancellor of the University.

It's worth to mention that the new fitness hall will meet the expectations of faculty staff members and students in terms of equipment and sports equipment.

The hall was built on an area of 600 square meters with thermal sauna, steam sauna, physiotherapy and rehabilitation unit.

It also includes a gymnasium and aerobics hall which is well equipped to suit the requirements of each person.

Prof/ Kenawy thanked all the workers for their efforts, stressing that the University appreciates the importance of sport and its practice and worked to achieve and implement a specialized gymnasium with high level to enable all groups and sectors within the university to exercise.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

11th March, 2018

Launching the second student initiatives conference "Egypt 2030" at Mansoura University

The activities of the second "Student Initiatives" conference - Mansoura University entitled "Sustainable Development Egypt 2030", launched on 11th March 2018, under the patronage of the Minister of Higher Education.

Students from 20 public and private universities participated in the conference.

It is worth mentioning that "Sustainable development 2030" was chosen because of the importance of the topic, following its unanimous adoption by the United Nations in recent years, aims at making the best use in all fields for the benefit of generations.

Prof/ Ashraf Abdel Basset - Vice President of the University, highlighted Egypt's development plan 2030 in light of the goals set by the United Nations, including the fourth goal, that calls for equitable education for all.

He pointed out that the university seeks to educate students and develop their personality, to be able to do their part in serving the community in all respects.

For his part, Prof/ Mohamed Kenawy – president of Mansoura University stressed that the participation of youth from various Egyptian universities through the provision of suggestions for the development of society will contribute to their integration into the society, and using suggestions to remedy all problems.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

13th March, 2018

Sixteen ambassadors and cultural attachés participate in the festival of peoples at Mansoura University

The Fourth People's Festival for International Students "Egypt faces terrorism" was launched on Tuesday 13th March 2018 with the attendance of 16 ambassadors and cultural attachés.

Under the patronage of prof/ Mohamed Kenawy – president of Mansoura University and organized by the international relations – Mansoura University.

The festival was attended by the Ambassadors of Iraq, Mauritania and Yemen, the Delegate Minister of the Embassy of Malaysia, the Saudi Cultural Medicine for community service and environmental affairs.

The Cooperation Protocol aims at supporting patients who are unable to receive all the services at Mansoura University's hospitals and organizing medical convoys

A team from the Misr El Kheir Foundation in Dakahlia visited Mansoura University hospitals and learned about the provided health services and medical convoys have already begun to coordinate.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

20th March, 2018

Inspection visit to the Renewable Energy Research Institute in Gamesa on Sunday 20 May 2018, both prof/ Mahmoud El Meligy - Vice President for Environmental Development and Community Service and prof/ Ashra Swailam - Vice President for Post-graduate Studies and Research affairs, visited the Renewable Energy Research Institute in Gamesa.

in the presence of Prof/ Mohamed Salah - Director of the International Relations Office at the University.

During the visit, they inspected the construction of the fence and the Renewable Energy Research Institute.

The institute is the first of the construction works of the University of Mansoura on Gamesa city, and the area of the project and 20000 meters were allocated to establish the institute which is including (solar energy - wind energy - biomass energy - Nuclear technologies).

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

5th Jun, 2018

President of Mansoura University inspects the Gastrointestinal Surgery Center

Prof/ Mohamed Kenawy - President of Mansoura University, visited the Gastrointestinal Surgery Center, to inspect the development and modernization of the operations wing, where 3 operating rooms were developed, as well as the establishment of a modern operating room equipped with the latest equipment and modern technology to perform all various gastrointestinal operations, large and medium operations and special skilled operations.

Prof/ Ahmed Abdel-Raouf confirmed that the center is currently implementing a plan to develop and modernize all units and departments in order to keep up with the latest developments in the medical field.

Prof/ Kenawy praised the outstanding medical status of the Gastrointestinal Surgery Center, the development and modernization of the operating rooms, the efforts of the Center's management and the medical team in the development of medical services.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

5th jun, 2018

President of Mansoura University inspected the bone marrow transplantation unit at the Children's Hospital

Prof/ Mohamed Kenawy - President of Mansoura University, visited the Children's Hospital to inspect what has been achieved and the preparations for the start of the bone marrow transplantation unit and the bank and stem cell research unit of the umbilical cord.

its worth to mention that the unit includes 4 cabins for the bone marrow transplantation surgeries and the unit will be equipped with the latest medical equipment. The surgeries will be performed by a trained medical team at the highest level of efficiency

Prof/ Farah Al-Shennawy presented the equipment of the Research Unit and the Stem Cell Bank, a project funded by the Science and Technology Development Fund (STDF) and the Unit's work plan for research during the next phase.

Prof/ Ahmed Al-Rifai pointed out that the bone marrow transplantation unit is a new hope for children suffering from cancer and blood diseases.

For his part, prof/ Mohammed Kenawy mentioned that the university has an ambitious strategy and plan to develop the medical services provided by the medical centers and hospitals, including the Children's Hospital, which provides advanced medical services.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

10th jun ,2018

Mansoura University Free of Virus-C" campaign

Within the frame work of Mansoura university's care of the university staff members and employees.

Mansoura University launched the "Mansoura

University Free of Virus-C" campaign in cooperation with the specialized hospital, Mansoura

تحت رعاية

أ.د/ محمد حسن التتايي
رئيس الجامعة

أ.د/ محمود محمد المايحي
نائب رئيس الجامعة

تنظيم إدارة الاتصالات والمؤتمرات

بقطاع خدمة المجتمع وتنمية البيئة

حملة بعنوان "جامعة خالية من فيروس سي"

بالتعاون مع مستشفى الباطنة التخصصي - مستشفى الجامعة - التأمين الصحي

في الفترة من 25-26 / 6 / 2018

وفق برنامج الزيارات المتبادل بالكتاب

الراعي الرسمي شركة فاركو للأدوية PHARCO PHARMACEUTICALS

مدير عام إدارة الاتصالات والمؤتمرات د/ مصطفى أمين جابر

university hospital and the General Authority for Health Insurance.

In the period from 25-26 June 2018 at 10 am

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

26th Aug ,2018

Important announcement

The community service and environmental development affairs sector, announces the beginning of the health and safety committees work on the inspection of the health and safety procedures, including all university establishments inside and outside the campus, medical centers and hospitals.

Starting on Monday 27th August 2018, according to the following schedule.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

4th Sep ,2018

Mansoura University is looking with the IT Institute to establish the first technological innovation center in the Delta

Prof/ Mohamed El-Kenawy - President of Mansoura University and prof/ Mahmoud El Meligy - Vice President for Community Service and Environmental Development affairs, received the the Ministry of Communications and Information Technology delegation to discuss the possibility of establishing a technological innovation center and technological incubators in cooperation with the Ministry of Communications and Information Technology.

In the presence of Prof/ Hassan Atman - former Vice President and Scientific and Technological Advisor to the University President and Prof/ Hassan Suleiman-Dean of the Faculty of Computers and Information.

The meeting included discussions to increase the ITI's activities at the university through signing a protocol that includes the establishment of an advanced integrated technology center that combines these activities at a headquarters specially equipped within the university to develop and embrace the skills of students and graduates of the university in various fields of information technology.

ITI officials also offered the services of the Ministry of Communications to Mansoura University through the support of the university to the ministry with an area of open land.

To set up an integrated technology services center to serve the youth of Mansoura University and the Delta region to increase the number of

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

5th sep 2018

The President of Mansoura University inspects the first phase of the Nile Club facilities development plan

Prof/ Mohamed Kenawy - President of Mansoura University, and prof/ Mahmoud El Meligy - Vice President for Community Service and Environmental Development, inspected the first phase of the Nile Club facilities development plan.

Accompanied by prof/ Mohammed Zuhri - Manager of the club and prof/ Nabil Balat - Engineering Supervisor and advisor to the University President for Engineering Affairs.

The development plan includes 3 phases that started in mid-2017 and end by the end of 2021

The first stage: is the establishment of an industrial playground and the children's corner.

The second stage: is the establishment of a big wedding hall and a luxurious restaurant.

The third stage: is a swimming pool.

Prof/ Zuhri gave a detailed explanation of the development work in the club, explained what has already been accomplished from the development plan and the requirements of completing the remaining work during the coming period.

Prof/ Mohammed Kenawy stressed the rapid completion of the first phase of the development plan according to the schedule and the required technical specifications, praising the level reached by the club and its response to the needs of club members and their

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

22 Oct 2018

Mansoura University receives the delegation of the evaluation of universities in the competition of the best Egyptian universities.

Prof. Dr. Ashraf Abdel Baset , Acting president of Mansoura university , received the delegation of evaluating the universities in the competition of the best Egyptian universities in Under guidance of President Abdel Fattah El Sisi, President of the Republic , towards evaluating the universities in the best university competition. The delegation includes Mr. Tarek Kamal, Assistant Secretary General Council of Ministers for Government Relations, Lt. Col. Hamid Ismail - Administrative Control in Mansoura, Mr. Ehab - Head of the Central Administration of the Office of the Minister of Higher Education.

In the presence of Prof. Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy, Vice President for Community Service and Environmental Development, Prof. Dr. Ashraf Swailem, Vice President for Graduate Studies and Researches, Secretary General of the University and Assistant Secretaries, President of the Student Union.

The events of the visit began with a video presentation about the university and a presentation on the university's progress and development in the completion of many projects and objectives to provide the best services for students and linking them to community service and to facilitate the educational process as well as the interest of the university to international students.

The delegation also attended the celebration of the University of the 45th anniversary of the October victories and presented during the ceremony art shows for students from different faculties and a military parade for students of military education.

During the visit, the delegation inspected the laboratories of the electronics and communications engineering department, the soil measurement center, foundations and lecture halls in the building of the quality programs, and the nanotechnology center at the Faculty of Engineering. The delegation inspected the university city for female students. The delegation toured the center of communication technology and saw electronic management systems, the mobile application services , and Converting paper books to electronic courses implemented by the University recently.

The delegation inspected the medical services of the university students hospital and the procedures of the medical examination as well as the steps of the virus C scanning for Mansoura University students as well as the surgical procedures carried out inside the hospital. The delegation toured the Mansoura Manchester program in the Faculty of Dentistry. The delegation inspected a simulation model to qualify the students for the labor market. They inspected the mock court and attended a trial session in English at the Faculty of Law, as well as inspecting the library and digital library. The delegation inspected the Olympic Village and its playgrounds, the educational swimming pool and the fitness center, the squash court, the student activities center for students with special needs at the administration of students care.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

12 Dec 2018

Opening of the charity exhibition for students at Mansoura University

Prof. Dr. Ashraf Abdel Baset, President of Mansoura University, Prof. Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy, Vice President of Mansoura University for Community Service and Environmental Development, inaugurated the permanent student charity exhibition for the academic year 2018-2019 organized by the Community Service and Environmental Development Sector at the Student Service academy.

In the presence of a number of deans of the faculties and agents in different colleges, Engineer / Reda Shafei captain of engineers in Dakahlia, Dr. / Abdel Moneim Mungi - Deputy Director of Veterinary Medicine Dakahlia.

Prof. Ashraf Abdel Baset stressed that the university is always working to support students in all services and sectors. The charity exhibition aims to establish the principle of solidarity and ease the financial burden on students and their parents and provide social services.

Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy pointed out that the charity exhibition contains many exhibits at nominal prices for students as well as workers who are not able through vouchers from each college.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

6 th Nov 2018

Mansoura University celebrates World Blind Day

The Department of Environmental Projects at the Community affairs and environmental development Sector at Mansoura University on Tuesday 6 November 2018 to celebrate the International Blind Day at Nile Club in Mansoura University under the care of Prof. Dr. Ashraf Abdel Basset, Acting President of the University and supervised by Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy , Vice president for Community Service and environment development in cooperation with the department of Special Education in Directorate of Education in Dakahlia.

In the presence of Prof. Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy, the Secretary General of the University, and the assistant Secretaries of the University, Directors of departments at Mansoura University, a number of students and supervisors at Al Noor School for the Blind in Mansoura.

Dr. Ehab El-Sherbini, Director General of Environmental Projects department at Mansoura University, pointed to the University's leadership among the various Egyptian universities in the celebration of International Blind Day, which is celebrated by Mansoura University for the fifth year in a row which reflects the university's social responsibility towards Dakahlia children especially blind , each year, the blind will host a number of blind students, organize recreational activities for them and host a number of specialists in the care of the blind to learn about the latest findings of the world in the field of health and social care for them.

Prof. Mahmoud El Meligy expressed his happiness that Mansoura University will continue to celebrate the International Blind Day for the fifth year in a row and its effective continuation with Al Noor School for the Blind, which will have a good impact on these students and increase their chances of integration with the surrounding community and the university when they join it . The Al Noor Library Hall was also assigned to the University's Central Library to welcome blind university students for research.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

24 Dec 2018

President of Mansoura University receives the President of the General Authority for Adult Education to hold the protocol of literacy in Dakahlia governorate

Dr. Ashraf Abdel Baset, President of Mansoura University, Dr. Kamal Jad Sharoubim, Governor of Dakahlia, Dr. Ashour Ahmed Amry, President of the General Authority for Adult Education, met to discuss the activation of the protocol of the Supreme Council of Universities for Literacy and to activate the protocol of cooperation between the Adult Education Authority and Mansoura University which is represented in the Faculty of Education.

The meeting was attended by Prof. Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy, Vice President for Community Service and Environmental Development, Prof. Asmaa Abdel Moneim Mostafa, Dean of the Faculty of Education, Dr. Magdy Salah, Head of Curriculum and Teaching Methods, Mr. Ramadan El Shahat, To teach adults in Mansoura.

Dr. Ashour Amri noted that literacy is a national task and will be organized a national campaign to eliminate under the auspices of the President of the Republic and will participate students of the Faculty of Education to reach as many as possible illiterate people to erase their illiteracy in the villages in Dakahlia ,students will be trained through a training program and workshops for the use of educational aids to adult literacy as the protocol aims to establish centers for adult education within the university.

For his part, Prof. Ashraf Abdel Baset stressed the university's full support for the national campaign for literacy through the Faculty of Education. The students will also implement the national plan for literacy, which will help achieve comprehensive development and achieve Egypt's future vision.

Report 2018

Mansoura University
Sector of Community Service
and Environmental Development

27th Dec , 2018

Mansoura University organizes the first concourse for foreign students in the Egyptian universities

Dr. Mahmoud El Meligy, Vice-President of Mansoura University for Community Service and Environmental Development, held a meeting with the members of the organizing higher Committee of the first concourse of foreign students in Egyptian universities to discuss the arrangements for launching the forum activities which is organized by Mansoura University from 26 to 29 January 2019 under the auspices of Dr. Khaled Abdel-Ghaffar, Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research, and the leadership of Prof. Dr. Ashraf Abdel Basset, President of Mansoura University, in which more than 13 Egyptian universities will participate in sports, cultural, social and artistic activities and Science Club, in cooperation with Central administration for the affairs of Foreign Students and Egyptian Universities. He stressed that the forum aims to extend ties of cooperation and relations between the Egyptian universities to serve foreign students, provide them with various services, connect them with the Egyptian society and increase their interaction with each other, as well as with Egyptian students to reduce their feelings of alienation.

